

Chinese Minister of Culture celebrated at Library of Congress Luncheon

Chinese Minister of Culture, Sun Jiazheng, examines the collections in the Asian Reading Room of the Library of Congress (above) where he was honored with a luncheon (right) hosted by Librarian of Congress, James. H. Billington, and Adair Margo, Chairman of the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities.

Minister Sun addresses the luncheon attendees, including members of the US Department of State, the National Endowment for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, local arts leaders, and the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the United States.

Chairman Margo presents Minister Sun with photos of the King Ranch in Texas, which was a stop for the minister and his delegation during their recent travels in the US (left).
Dr. James H. Billington accepts a book from Minister Sun during the luncheon (right).

Chairman Margo speaks at the Library of Congress Luncheon in honor of Minister Sun Jiazheng, who was a special guest of the President's Committee. He also participated in PCAH's Coming Up Taller Awards at the White House. His visit was a follow-up to the PCAH's 2007 cultural delegation to China.